

Medicare's open enrollment period runs through December 31, offering beneficiaries the chance to switch prescription drug plans. At least 50 choices are available in every state, but the amount a beneficiary will pay under each plan varies depending on its benefits and the specific needs of the person. To help with those tough decisions, you can access a brochure on my Web site that offers some important things to consider.

Click Here for E-Newsletter Home Page